

Your freedom is under attack.

...but Senator Max Baucus is fighting back.

Last week, the U.S. Senate debated gun control. One of Montana's Senators, Max Baucus, stood on the side of freedom. Thanks to Max Baucus' principled vote, every single gun control proposal was defeated. Baucus opposed efforts to ban commonly owned semi-automatic rifles and he helped protect the privacy of private firearm transfers between law-abiding individuals.

Max Baucus stood up to Washington to uphold Montana values. That's why New York City Mayor Michael Bloomberg and the PCCC – an anti-farming, anti-hunting, anti-energy group from Washington, DC – are attacking him now.

Call Senator Baucus.
Thank him for putting Montanans first.
